SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2011
10:00 A.M.

Join us in a time-honored tradition that originated in Cambridge, England. Readings of the Nativity and carols will be offered in this special service of music and scripture. The Chapel Choir will be joined by Musicians-Out-of-the-Box string quartet.

Musicians-Out-of-the-Box String Quartet has performed throughout the West Coast of Florida and collaborated with dancers, singers, visual artists, and actors to bring awareness for all types of art to our community.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 29, 2012
4:00 P.M.

DR. JOSEPH HOLT, PIANIST

Dr. Joseph Holt is the Director of Gloria Musicae, Sarasota's only professional choral ensemble, and the Artist-in-Residence at Faith Lutheran Church, Sarasota. In Washington, D.C. he was Associate Music Director for the Choral Arts Society for fifteen years. With the U.S. Army Band, Master Sergeant (retired) Holt performed as soloist at Avery Fisher Hall in New York, Kennedy Center Concert Hall, Meyerson Concert Hall in Dallas, Texas, and the Bass Performance Hall in Fort Worth. He is a conductor, pianist, arts administrator, educator, and arranger. His musical career is all-encompassing and his gifts are rare. Please join us for an afternoon of unparalleled musicianship.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2012

JACOBITES PIPE AND DRUM BAND

We are once again honored to present the Jacobites Pipe and Drum Band. Founded by pipers Larry Jacobs and Gary Reinstrom, this group celebrates Sarasota's Scottish heritage.

They will present music featuring bagpipes, drums, whistles, singers, and dancers. This is the third performance for the Jacobites on the Siesta Key Chapel Arts Series and they have returned once again by popular demand!
